

Lab Class Activity:

- 1) Write a query to find employees whose first name starts with the letter 'J'. Order the result by last name.
- 2) Display the employee's salary multiplied by 12 (annual salary) and alias the column as "Annual Salary". Use the ROUND function to round the salary to the nearest whole number.
- 3) List all Employees who have an 'A' in their last names.
- 4) Write an SQL query to convert the salary of each employee to a string, concatenate it with the string ' USD', and alias the column as "Salary in USD".
- 5) Display the total salary for each department, ordering the results by the total salary in descending order. Alias the total salary column as "Total Salary".
- 6) Write a query to display the hire date of each employee in the format 'Month Year' (e.g., 'July 2023'). Alias the column as "Hire Date".
- 7) Display the salary of employee SCOTT with $ sign preceded.
- 8) Display the employee number, name, salary, salary increase by 15% expressed as a whole number (labeled as New Salary), the difference between old salary and new salary (labeled as Increment).
- 9) Count the number of employees for each job title and order the result by the count in ascending order. Alias the count column as "Number of Employees".
- 10) Display the name of the employee who are working in the company for the past 20 years.

Lab Task:

- 1) Print an employee name (first_name capital) and job id (lower Case) from employees table
- 2) Comparing the hire dates for all employees who started in 2003, display the employee number, hire date, and month started using the conversion and date functions.
- 3) Find the next 'Monday' considering today's date as date.
- 4) Show all employees' last three letters of first name.
- 5) List the name, hire date, and day of the week (labeled DAY) on which job was started. Order the result by day of week starting with Monday.
- 6) Display the department and manager id for all employees and round the commission up to 1 decimal.
- 7) Write a query to find the list of employees whose COMMISSION_PCT>0 and they do not belong to DEPARTMENT ID 90 or 100 from Employees table
- 8) Write a query to find the employees who are hired in year 2010 from Employees table.
- 9) Write a query to find the list of jobs whose min salary is greater than 8000 and less than 15,000 from job table.
- 10) Write a query to find employee whose ID are greater than 100 and less than 150 and their department_id is greater than 90 and less than 100 along with their first_name, Last_name & Job ID.
- 11) Write a query to find total salary (Total salary formula = salary + (commission_pct* salary)) as "Total Salary", commission_pct where commission_pct is not equal to null.
- 12) Display the total salary being paid to all employees.
- 13) List the employees information whose daily salary is more than Rs.100.
- 14) List the employees who joined on (1-MAY-81, 3-DEC-81, 17-DEC-81, 19-JAN-80) in asc order of seniority.